Page 7: Your views on the proposal - Aim and approach

Q1. Which of the following best expresses your view of the proposal to exempt funfairs from Public Entertainment Licensing requirements and to create a distinct new licensing system for funfairs in Scotland?

Fully opposed

Please explain the reasons for your response

Don't think it's fair that there are so many different prices one should fit all fairs

Q2. Could the aims of this proposal be better delivered in another way (without a Bill in the Scottish Parliament)?

Unsure

Q3. What do you think would be the main advantages, if any, of the proposal?

Think it would be much better if the cost of a licence was the same in every part of the country

Q4. What do you think will be the main disadvantages, if any, of the proposal?

None providing the price was fair and not trying to put showmen of the road

Q5. What do you think the maximum time available should be for local authorities to make a decision on an application to hold a funfair?

14 days

Q6. How do you think fees should be determined for local authorities to process an application?

single fee fixed in statute

Q7. What is your view on what should happen to the fee in cases where an application is refused?

Part of the fee returnable to the applicant

Page 14: Financial implications

Q8. Taking account of both costs and potential savings, what financial impact would you expect the proposed Bill to have on:

	Significant increase in cost	Some increase in cost	Broadly cost-neutral	Some reduction in cost	Significant reduction in cost	Unsure
(a) Showpeople					X
(b) Local authorities						X
(c) General public					X

Please explain the reasons for your response

If it was a reasonable cost it would ease the financial difficulties of showmen across the land resulting in better

Q8. Taking account of both costs and potential savings, what financial impact would you expect the proposed Bill to have on:

fun fairs and more fun for all

Page 15: Equalities

Q9. What overall impact is the proposed Bill likely to have on equality, taking account of the following protected characteristics (under the Equality Act 2010): age, disability, gender re-assignment, marriage and civil partnership, pregnancy and maternity, race, religion and belief, sex, sexual orientation?

Positive

Q10. In what ways could any negative impact of the proposed Bill on equality be minimised or avoided?

Not sure .?

Q11. Do you consider that the proposed Bill can be delivered sustainably i.e. without having likely future disproportionate economic, social and/or environmental impacts?

Yes

Page 18: General

Q12. Do you have any other comments or suggestions on the proposal to exempt funfairs from Public Entertainment Licensing requirements and to create a distinct new licensing system for funfairs in Scotland?

It would be a much fairer system surely it can't be right that there are so many different prices for a licence
After all if you came on to the fair and paid for a toffee apple at one stall and went to the next stall and it was twice the price you wouldn't be very happy I rest my case
