Page 7: Your views on the proposal - Aim and approach

Q1. Which of the following best expresses your view of the proposal to exempt funfairs from Public Entertainment Licensing requirements and to create a distinct new licensing system for funfairs in Scotland?

Fully Supportive

Q1. Which of the following best expresses your view of the proposal to exempt funfairs from Public Entertainment Licensing requirements and to create a distinct new licensing system for funfairs in Scotland?

Please explain the reasons for your response

I am a young showperson who believes I have no positive future as a showperson unless licenses are brought into line with the rest of the UK.

Q2. Could the aims of this proposal be better delivered in another way (without a Bill in the Scottish Parliament)?

No

Please explain the reasons for your response

Only Scottish Government have the power.

Q3. What do you think would be the main advantages, if any, of the proposal?

I would be able to continue my family's heritage as a travelling showperson without unnecessary restriction.

Q4. What do you think will be the main disadvantages, if any, of the proposal?

None.

Q5. What do you think the maximum time available should be for local authorities to make a decision on an application to hold a funfair?

28 days

Q6. How do you think fees should be determined for local authorities to process an application?

fee must not exceed the cost of processing the application

Please explain the reasons for your response, including details of the amount of any suggested fees.

Self explanatory.

Q7. What is your view on what should happen to the fee in cases where an application is refused?

Part of the fee returnable to the applicant

Page 14: Financial implications

Q8. Taking account of both costs and potential savings, what financial impact would you expect the proposed Bill to have on:

	Significant increase in cost	Some increase in cost	Broadly cost-neutral	Some reduction in cost	Significant reduction in cost	Unsure
(a) Showpeople				X
(b) Local authorities			X
(c) General public			X

Please explain the reasons for your response

If there are no licenses, there would be no additional cost to authorities or the public.

Page 15: Equalities

Q9. What overall impact is the proposed Bill likely to have on equality, taking account of the following protected characteristics (under the Equality Act 2010): age, disability, gender re-assignment, marriage and civil partnership, pregnancy and maternity, race, religion and belief, sex, sexual orientation?

Positive

Please explain the reasons for your response

I would no longer be discriminated against compared to the rest of the UK and Europe.

Q10. In what ways could any negative impact of the proposed Bill on equality be minimised or avoided?

There are none.

Q11. Do you consider that the proposed Bill can be delivered sustainably i.e. without having likely future disproportionate economic, social and/or environmental impacts?

Yes

Please explain the reasons for your response:

It works in the rest of the UK.
