Page 7: Your views on the proposal - Aim and approach

Q1. Which of the following best expresses your view of the proposal to exempt funfairs from Public Entertainment Licensing requirements and to create a distinct new licensing system for funfairs in Scotland?

Partially supportive

Please explain the reasons for your response

Q1. Which of the following best expresses your view of the proposal to exempt funfairs from Public Entertainment Licensing requirements and to create a distinct new licensing system for funfairs in Scotland?

I only support taking funfairs out of the licence system

Q2. Could the aims of this proposal be better delivered in another way (without a Bill in the Scottish Parliament)?

No

Please explain the reasons for your response

Government have give out guidance but nothing has changed

Q3. What do you think would be the main advantages, if any, of the proposal?

More funfairs better rides
Fairer for Scottish showmen

Q4. What do you think will be the main disadvantages, if any, of the proposal?

None

Q5. What do you think the maximum time available should be for local authorities to make a decision on an application to hold a funfair?

less than 14 days (please specify)

Please explain the reasons for your response.

7 days to help with last minute applications

Q6. How do you think fees should be determined for local authorities to process an application?

maximum fee set in statute

Please explain the reasons for your response, including details of the amount of any suggested fees.

Government should set maximum price to avoid over charging like what is happening now

Q7. What is your view on what should happen to the fee in cases where an application is refused?

Part of the fee returnable to the applicant

Please explain the reasons for your response

Any money over the cost of processing should be returned

Page 14: Financial implications

Q8. Taking account of both costs and potential savings, what financial impact would you expect the proposed Bill to have on:

	Significant increase in cost	Some increase in cost	Broadly cost-neutral	Some reduction in cost	Significant reduction in cost	Unsure
(a) Showpeople				X
(b) Local authorities			X
(c) General public			X

Please explain the reasons for your response

It would make it cheaper for showmen having no licence fee then this could be passed on to the customer the council would not be processing any licence so would have no costs

Page 15: Equalities

Q9. What overall impact is the proposed Bill likely to have on equality, taking account of the following protected characteristics (under the Equality Act 2010): age, disability, gender re-assignment, marriage and civil partnership, pregnancy and maternity, race, religion and belief, sex, sexual orientation?

Positive

Please explain the reasons for your response

It would help protect showmens way of life which is an important part of Scotland

Q10. In what ways could any negative impact of the proposed Bill on equality be minimised or avoided?

There would be no negative impact

Q11. Do you consider that the proposed Bill can be delivered sustainably i.e. without having likely future disproportionate economic, social and/or environmental impacts?

Yes

Please explain the reasons for your response:

More funfairs would help showmen and mean more employment causing a positive impact on the economic system

Q12. Do you have any other comments or suggestions on the proposal to exempt funfairs from Public Entertainment Licensing requirements and to create a distinct new licensing system for funfairs in Scotland?

I think all other countries in UK and Europe don't have licensing for funfairs so dont think Scotland needs this it is causing less showmen to carry on there business and public to get less fairgrounds
