Page 7: Your views on the proposal - Aim and approach

Q1. Which of the following best expresses your view of the proposal to exempt funfairs from Public Entertainment Licensing requirements and to create a distinct new licensing system for funfairs in Scotland?

Fully Supportive

Please explain the reasons for your response

All over Europe they don't need a licence to operate there is showmen who travel in the Scottish Borders and pay for a licence then a few mile south they don't need a licence also the price of licences change in different

council

Q2. Could the aims of this proposal be better delivered in another way (without a Bill in the Scottish Parliament)?

Unsure

Q3. What do you think would be the main advantages, if any, of the proposal?

There needs to be a set tariff across the board

Q4. What do you think will be the main disadvantages, if any, of the proposal?

None it can only be better to save a part of the heritage of the fairgrounds

Q5. What do you think the maximum time available should be for local authorities to make a decision on an application to hold a funfair?

less than 14 days (please specify)

Please explain the reasons for your response.

As you are probably fully aware of that it takes months of planning a fair so they need to know ASAP so they can then move on and try find a suitable place

Q6. How do you think fees should be determined for local authorities to process an application?

fee must not exceed the cost of processing the application

Q7. What is your view on what should happen to the fee in cases where an application is refused?

Full fee returnable to the applicant

Please explain the reasons for your response

Unless there is blame on the showman other than that there's should be a fee that the person objecting to the licence should pay and then if the objections is valid then they should be refunded

Q8. Taking account of both costs and potential savings, what financial impact would you expect the proposed Bill to have on:

	Significant increase in cost	Some increase in cost	Broadly cost-neutral	Some reduction in cost	Significant reduction in cost	Unsure
