Q1. Which of the following best expresses your view of the proposal to exempt funfairs from Public Entertainment Licensing requirements and to create a distinct new licensing system for funfairs in Scotland?

Fully Supportive

Please explain the reasons for your response

Q1. Which of the following best expresses your view of the proposal to exempt funfairs from Public Entertainment Licensing requirements and to create a distinct new licensing system for funfairs in Scotland?

i think it should be scrapped as they pay enough in rent to council as well as expense to operate the fair

Q2. Could the aims of this proposal be better delivered in another way (without a Bill in the Scottish Parliament)?

Yes

Please explain the reasons for your response

going down this road hopefully will put a cap on it or get rid of it for showmen

Q3. What do you think would be the main advantages, if any, of the proposal?

it would save showmen paying out money that even if it doesn't get approved stop them losing there money

Q4. What do you think will be the main disadvantages, if any, of the proposal?

disadvantages are that they might have to stop bringing fair to towns because its to expensive to run fairs

Q5. What do you think the maximum time available should be for local authorities to make a decision on an application to hold a funfair?

28 days

Q6. How do you think fees should be determined for local authorities to process an application?

unsure

Q7. What is your view on what should happen to the fee in cases where an application is refused?

Full fee returnable to the applicant

Q9. What overall impact is the proposed Bill likely to have on equality, taking account of the following protected characteristics (under the Equality Act 2010): age, disability, gender re-assignment, marriage and civil partnership, pregnancy and maternity, race, religion and belief, sex, sexual orientation?

Positive

Q10. In what ways could any negative impact of the proposed Bill on equality be minimised or avoided?

if the fee is not there then it gives showmen more opportunity to put on more fairs at a lower cost of rides

Page 17: Sustainability

Q11. Do you consider that the proposed Bill can be delivered sustainably i.e. without having likely future disproportionate economic, social and/or environmental impacts?

Unsure
